

Pieces of Eight

Sossy Mechanics in association with Fringe Management

Including the most inventive use of umbrellas and oranges I have ever seen, Pieces of Eight is an exotic fairytale show full of crazy characters and feisty dancing. Two actors perform the whole epic adventure, and switch with expert ease from posh prince to lowly servant, french smooth-talker to stealy spaniard. An extra dash of spice is added by "Mad Maggie the dancing pirate", with her fiery personality and provocative moves. Although at times a bit silly and childish, the enchanting dancing scenes and lively characters combine to make this an entertaining and original show. [ch]

*George Square Theatre, 10-21 Aug,
2:30pm (3:30 pm), £10.00 (£7.50), fpp 175*

tw rating: 3/5