

TRICK BOXING

●●●●

Dancing, fisticuffs and puppets.

You can imagine actor Brian Sostek was one of those kids who entertained aunts at birthday parties with his energy and impersonations.

Accompanied by dancing actress Megan McClennan, he literally sweats it out to impressively portray all of the male characters in this high-octane physical comedy.

Conniving Bill Buck meets a naïve young apple-seller on the streets and realises that he might have talent in the boxing ring. He trains the boy and sells him dreams of greatness, but fixes the final fight in a betting scam, believing young Dancing Danny David will take the fall. From swinging Sinatra-style on the dance-floor, to swinging left hooks in the ring, Trick Boxing is fast moving, good old-fashioned fun.

(Andrea Harkin)

■ Gilded Balloon Teviot,
226 2151, until 25 Aug
(not 19), 3.30pm,
£8.50-£9.50
(£7.50-£8.50).